minutes. Just 7km long and around 2km wide, the island is a walkers' and cyclists' paradise, with quiet tracks and stunning scenery. Don't miss the ruined Gyleen Castle, a small tower house built in 1582. The Kerrera Tearoom and Bunkhouse is a great spot for some refreshments.

OBAN
Rightly known as 'the Seafood Capital of Scotland', Oban is the buzzing and booming ferry port and main town of Argyll and the Isles. There is a fantastic mix of lots of great shops, restaurants, cafés and a myriad of great days out of exploring the surrounding area.

THE PASS OF BRANDER
One of the main routes into Argyll is the scenic drive from Tynndrum to Oban, along Glen Lochy through the Pass of Brander, hugging the northern shores of Loch Awe, and then the southern shores of Loch Etive. There is rich wealth of fascinating natural and industrial heritage to explore at Bonar Alton Furnace, Glen Nant Heritage Nature Reserve and the captivating St Conans Kirk.

ISLE OF LISMORE
What a gem of an island at only 10 miles long by 4.5 mile wide, perfect for gentle walks and cycles, and all this located close to the mainland via a short ferry trip from Port Appin or Oban. Gaelic for 'great garden', Lismore is considered to be Scotland's most fertile island and is home to more than 130 different bird species.

For novice or keen kayakers, yachtsmen and divers the seas around Oban offer the best in Europe for their sports, whilst the surrounding dominating hills and glens are magnificent for walking and cycling at any pace which takes your fancy.

LOCH MELFORT AND CRAOBH HAVEN
Loch Melfort and Craobh Haven are great bases for watersports and sailing, with the Craobh Marina located on the northern shore of the Craignish peninsula. The idyllic scenery of tranquil lochs and waterways reflecting the array of sail boats, large and small, creates an oasis of calm and escape right here in Oban and Lorn.

THE SLATE ISLANDS
Sometimes known as the Lorn Islands, you can access this amazing collection of small islands by crossing the 'Bridge over the Atlantic'. The Isles of Seil, Easdale and Luing in the Firth of Lorn were once the centre of UK slate and the Atlantic Isles Centre offer much interest with a visitor centre, a folk museum, a heritage centre, boat tours and the World Stone Skimming Championships.

BENDERLOCH AND APPIN
Meandering sea lochs penetrate the hills and mountains of these two picturesque peninsulas north of Connel, offering you amazing opportunities to go explore on foot, by bike or even by kayak.

ISLE OF KERRERA
Beautiful Kerrera is Oban's closest island neighbour and can be seen from most parts of the town. The ferry journey from Oban to Kerrera takes just a few

OFF THE BEATEN TRACK

Go the extra mile and visit some less well-known hidden gems and places. They are well-worth exploring to make the most of your post-lockdown trip.

- Ardmaddy Gardens
- Avich Falls and Barnaline Oakwoods
- Bridge over the Atlantic and a trip to Easdale
- Duncan Ban Monument, Dalmally
- Inverawe Country Park and Fishery
- Kerrera and Gylen Castle walk
- Lismore - guided tours, cycle hire and The Gaelic Heritage Centre
- Ocean Explorer Centre, Dunstaffnage
- Pulpit Hill Viewpoint, Oban
- St Conans Kirk, Lochawe

PLANNING YOUR JOURNEY

The traditional route is by car or bus via the A82, then either the A83 via Inveraray before heading north via Dalmally to join the A85, or continue north on A82 to join the A85 at Tyndrum.

For a slight detour, follow the A83 to Lochgilphead, follow the Crinan Canal before travelling through Kilmartin Glen and northwards to Oban and Lorn.

Or sit back and relax on a regular train or bus journey from Glasgow to Oban.
